(i) in addition to the Purchase Price the Transferee covenants to pay the Additional Payment (as hereinafter defined) on any occasion or occasions hereinafter described and nothing herein shall prevent more than one payment by the Transferee to the Transferor becoming due hereunder

(ii) the occasion or occasions for the payment of the Additional Payment shall be whenever and as often as there shall be obtained in respect of the whole or any part or parts of the Property a planning permission for the development of the same under the terms of the Planning Act for a purpose other than for residential and ancillary development as permitted by planning permission 2/2000/0598 ("a qualifying planning permission")

(iii) the Additional Payment shall be the difference between:

(A) the Development Value (as hereinafter defined) of the part of the Property which enjoys the benefit of a qualifying planning permission and

(B) the Development Value at that date of the same part of the Property with the benefit of its then existing planning permission multiplied by the Percentage (as hereinafter defined)

(iv) the Percentage shall be 87.5%

(v) if the Transferee wishes to sell lease or otherwise dispose of the Property or any part thereof (except in relation to any residential units constructed thereon in which case the provisions of this Paragraph shall not apply) before a qualifying planning permission in respect of the part to be sold let or disposed of shall have been obtained the Transferee or any successor in title shall procure that any purchaser tenant or donee from it or them shall first enter into a direct covenant with the Transferor or his successors in title in such reasonable form as may be stipulated by the Transferor to observe and perform the covenants contained in this Paragraph provided that this covenant shall not apply so as to affect or bind any part of the Property which is to be transferred to any local authority (including any Parish or Town Council) pursuant to the Planning Agreement.
